

DJ MIONITE

A stylized logo for DJ Mionite. It features a circular graphic with a silhouette of a person's head and shoulders, overlaid with a grid pattern. The text "DJ MIONITE" is written in a bold, red, outlined font across the center of the graphic.

It all started in Rogers, Arkansas in 1989.

When the DJ failed to show up at a local roller rink, a young music enthusiast stepped in—and DJ Midnite was born. That spontaneous moment sparked a lifelong passion for mixing music and moving crowds, launching a career that would grow from small-town beginnings to international recognition.

Today, DJ Midnite is a seasoned artist and global performer with a reputation for delivering unforgettable sets. His mixes have earned multiple Top 20 and numerous Top 50 chart placements on Mixcloud.com, the leading platform for DJs and dance music worldwide.

From opening sets for icons like Ice Cube, Nelly, Ludacris, and Florida Georgia Line, to residencies and guest spots at renowned venues including Shadow Lake Surf Club, Gilley's – Durant, Millenium 2000, Planet Rock, and Bentley's Beach Bar, DJ Midnite has proven his ability to rock any stage and satisfy any crowd.

What truly sets DJ Midnite apart is his masterful ability to read the room. Whether spinning hip-hop, house, country, or pop, he instinctively delivers the perfect track at the perfect time—turning every event into an experience. With unmatched versatility, infectious energy, and a commitment to excellence, DJ Midnite isn't just playing music—he's creating the soundtrack to your most epic moments.
